

LONG-DISTANCE WALKER—This tiny woman shown alongside a Durham Street today is nearing the end of a 10,000-mile journey throughout this nation, Canada and Mexico to promote world peace. She will not reveal her real name, answering only to the name of Peace Pilgrim. Tomorrow she plans to walk from Durham to Raleigh. She said the only states in which she hasn't walked are South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, and she will visit these after leaving North Carolina. Behind her today were 9,675 miles and 11 pairs of worn-out and discarded shoes.

—Sun Staff Photo.