PILGRIM IN PROGRESS — "Peace Pilgrim,"

a woman who has logged 25,000 miles in a walk for peace which she began in the 1950s, steps out on Abram Street during her current Metroplex sojourn. Opposed to any use of nuclear power, the middle-aged woman said Friday that she "prays without ceasing" and "walks without fear." She is scheduled to speak this morning to members and guests of the Unity Church of Arlington during an 11 a.m. service at the Holiday Inn on Collins.
